

I will & I won't

Every time I think of that night I still smile
I made you laugh & you were kind enough to make me feel good for a while
At last when you fell in my arms, I know you were glad
It was so good to learn how things take a turn to happy from sad

appears

Will I tell you all the things if my heart says so?
Will I show you everything I want you to know?
Well I will and I won't
And I do and I don't.

Every time I think of that night I still smile
If I laughed and played happily, it's cause you made me feel good for a while
In your arms this gift of love didn't seem so bad
Though I didn't get you I could not forget to remember the night we had

appears

Will I tell you all the things if my heart says so?
Will I show you everything I want you to know?
Well I will & I won't.
And I do & I don't.

Will I tell you all the things if my heart says so?
Will I show you everything I want you to know?
Well I will & I won't.
Do I love you?
Well I do & I don't.

Bob Bob May '66.